DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

Guy Randy White Horse,

Petitioner,

vs.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Dwight L. Fondren,

Respondent.

Civ. No. 08-6345 (PJS/RLE)

This matter came before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge upon routine supervision of cases filed in this Division, and upon an assignment made in accordance with Title 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B).

This action was commenced on December 12, 2008, by the filing of what purported to be a Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §2241. See, Docket No. 1. However, by Order dated December 16, 2008, see, Docket No. 2, we concluded that the Petitioner's action could not be allowed to proceed as a Habeas matter, because he was not challenging the conviction, and sentence, for which he is in prison -- instead, the Petitioner claims that he is being wrongly deprived of the normal visitation, and telephone privileges, that are granted to other Federal prisoners. Nonetheless, we advised the Petitioner that, if he chose to pursue his claims, this action could be converted into a civil action, as follows:

1. That the Petitioner is granted leave to file a new pleading in this action, to be entitled a “Civil Complaint,” which shall comply with the pleading requirements prescribed in Rules 8 through 11, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Local Rule 9.3.
2. That, if the Petitioner elects to file a civil Complaint in this action, then his new pleading must be accompanied by either (a) the filing fee for bringing a civil action in Federal Court -- namely, an additional $345.00, or (b) a properly completed application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, together with the initial partial filing fee prescribed by Title 28 U.S.C. §1915(b)(1).
3. That, if the Petitioner has not satisfied all of the requirements of this Order, within twenty (20) days of the date of this Order, then we will recommend that this action be dismissed, without prejudice, pursuant to Rule 41(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Petitioner has failed to abide by the terms of our Order of December 16, 2008.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>On December 22, 2008, the Petitioner filed several documents with the Court, purportedly in support of his “complaint and petition.” See, Docket No. 3. However, those documents fail to meet the pleading requirements prescribed in Rules 8 through 11, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Local Rule 9.3, and as a result, they cannot be construed as a Civil Complaint, for purposes of the Petitioner’s current claims.

failure to prosecute this action, and to abide by the Orders of this Court, we recommend that this action be dismissed, for failure to comply with this Court's Order of December 16, 2008, for failure to file a Civil Complaint and to pay the filing fee, and for lack of prosecution.

NOW THEREFORE, It is --

RECOMMENDED:

That this action be dismissed for failure to comply with this Court's Order of December 16, 2008, for failure to file a Civil Complaint and to pay the filing fee, and for lack of prosecution.
